PRESERVATION

1

Forever Green Art trees and plants are nurtured from seedlings to assure quality and appearance. Only the best are chosen.

2

As they mature the trees and plants are continually and meticulously shaped by our Artisans in the field.

3

When they reach their final shape and size the plants are naturally preserved to maintain their fragrance, color and texture.

4

A final trim is performed to capture flawless form and perfect artistry. Our trees and plants look real - because they ARE real.
